Regular 600 pt with alternate 'a'

The image displays two large, bold lowercase letters, 'a' and 'a', in the Ciudadella Rounded font. The first 'a' is a standard lowercase letter with a rounded bowl and a vertical stem that ends in a rounded terminal. The second 'a' is an alternate version of the lowercase letter, featuring a more pronounced, rounded bowl and a stem that curves slightly to the left at the top before meeting the bowl. Both letters are rendered in a thick, black, rounded typeface.

Brown sugar comes either from the late stages of cane sugar refining, when sugar forms fine crystals with significant molasses content, or from coating white refined sugar with a cane molasses syrup blackstrap molasses. Brown sugar's color and taste becomes stronger with increasing molasses content, as do its moisture retaining properties. Brown sugars also tend to harden if exposed to the atmosphere, although proper handling can reverse this. Particle size is variable but generally smaller than granulated.

About the font

Ciudadella Rounded is not only a font with soft corners, it has a real rounded terminal across all the weights. It was a challenge to achieve a rounded effect in close counters characters, especially in the heaviest weights where there is less space available to accommodate the round ending. Suitable to be used across a wide range of applications, from identity systems to publications.
