About the font

Compressium evolved from the family's most distinctive weight, the Seven. This style was first scaled vertically and then rescaled to match its original height, making it more condensed. Its squared curves reinforce the compact rhythm by tightening the white space. As its name suggests, Compressium embodies this transformation: a series of seven ultra-condensed and powerful styles created to make a strong visual impact.

Languages

Compressium support at least the following languages: Afrikaans, Albanian, Basque, Bosnian, Bulgarian, Catalan, Croatian, Czech, Danish, Dutch, English, Esperanto, Estonian, Filipino, Finnish, French, Galician, German, Hungarian, Icelandic, Indonesian, Irish, Italian, Javanese, Kurdish, Latin, Latvian, Lithuanian, Malay, Maltese, Moldovan, Norwegian, Polish, Portuguese, Romanian, Scottish Gaelic, Serbian, Slovak, Slovenian, Somali, Spanish, Swahili, Swedish, Tagalog, Turkish, Welsh, Zulu.

Licenses

Desktop For use on a desktop computer. Including the most common uses, both personal and commercial, for use in desktop applications such as Adobe Photoshop, Adobe InDesign and Microsoft Office. Desktop licenses are based on the number of computers in which the font will be installed.

Webfont For a website or web application. A webfont license allows to embed the font into a website, so that it can be displayed on any browser. The license is based on a monthly pageview allowance for the webfonts. One time fee, this license does not need to be renewed if the site remain within that monthly pageviews.

ePub For use on an electronic publication. The license allows to embed the font in an electronic publication such as digital books, magazines, newspapers. An ePub license is based on the number of publications in which the font is used and each issue counts as a separate publication.

App For a mobile app for iOS, Android or Windows Phone, the license allows to embed the font in the mobile application's code. Licenses are purchased based on the total number of different apps created.

Server For use on sites, web apps, or services that allow a non-licensed user to utilize the font to create a personalized product. This license is valid for one year and is renewed each year that the font remains in use. A font downloaded with this license cannot be used in Software as a Service.
