Abstract expressionism is a post World War II art movement in American painting, developed in
New York in the 1940s.

Spray painting is a painting technique where a device sprays a coating paint, ink, varnish, through the air onto a surface. The most common types employ compressed gas usually air to atomize and direct the paint particles. Spray guns evolved from airbrushes, and the two are usually distinguished by their size and the size of the spray pattern they produce. Airbrushes are hand-held and used instead of a brush for detailed work such as photo retouching, painting nails or fine art.

The stencil is both the resulting image or pattern and the intermediate object; the context in which stencil is used makes clear which meaning is intended. In practice, the object stencil is usually a thin sheet of material, such as paper, plastic, wood or metal, with letters or a design cut from it.

About the font

Geogrotesque Stencil is a member of the popular Geogrotesque family, and despite being thought as a display typeface, it goes one step further and tries to solve some of the typical problems with stencils fonts. Geogrotesque Stencil comes with 3 widths of cut [A, B and C]. These cuts not only allow a better performance when printing at different sizes, you can also move across versions in accordance to the rigidity of the material used. The type family consists of 42 styles, 7 weights plus italics with 3 versions each.
